Making my choice to work toward or (1) my college education far from home is a (2) and difficult topic in my family because not everyone agrees. My family wants me to stay close to home and sometimes (3) me for wanting to attend college so far away. I have to make a thoughtful and (4) decision that everyone agrees with and that is not (5) or too quickly decided upon. When I make my decision, I will go to a private and (6) place where loud noises are (7), like the library. Since I am a dedicated and (8) student, I know that I will make the right choice and that my family will support me in whatever I choose.
