

CLASSIFICATION OF INVERTEBRATES

Name: _____

Date: _____

1. Identify the invertebrates.

a) These invertebrates have a soft body with pores: _____

b) These invertebrates have an exoskeleton: _____

c) These invertebrates have bodies covered with spikes: _____

d) These invertebrates have a soft body and most also have a hard shell: _____

2. Complete the spaces with the missing words.

spinal invertebrates molluscs arthropods annelids

The three types of bodies found in _____ are shells, exoskeletons and soft bodies. Ants, scorpions and beetles are examples of _____. Leeches and worms are examples of _____. Snails and oysters are examples of _____. All these animals don't have a _____ cord.