

PRACTICE 15.2B Identifying Adjectival Clauses

Read each sentence. Then, write the adjectival clause in each sentence.

EXAMPLE This is the street where I grew up.

ANSWER where I grew up

1. Anyone who knows her can tell you how smart she is.
2. The theater company, which had just come to town, put on a great show.
3. The store that was having a sale was busy.
4. My friend, who is always on time, was late today.
5. Leah, whose locker is next to mine, can't find her lucky pen.
6. The bed where the roses grow needs to be watered.
7. I finished the test that he gave me.
8. I would like a dog that I could take for walks.
9. Karin has a cat that loves cantaloupe.
10. The dancer, who looked familiar, was my mother's friend.
11. The coffee that Chad makes is too strong.
12. The computer that Andrew gave me has great graphics.
13. Her father, who has been gone for weeks, Will be home tomorrow.
14. The real estate agent whom they hired to sell their house is not trying very hard.
15. My mother, who loves to snow-ski, won't even try water-skiing.

Practice B Writing Sentences with Adjectival Clauses

Read the sentences below. Then, rewrite each sentence by correctly placing the adjectival clause, which appears in parentheses. Include commas where appropriate.

Example: The chicken was a little dry. (that Sarah made)

Answer: The chicken that Sarah made was a little dry.

1. The storm finally ended. (which had been raging for weeks)
2. The boy was crying. (who had fallen down)
3. The pen stopped working. (which was brand-new)
4. The cat makes Mom sneeze. (that we got at the shelter)