

JASON AND THE GOLDEN FLEECE

Fill in the paragraph by dragging and dropping the words in the correct spaces.

endeavored

yoke

glee

Golden
Fleece

boulder

disposal

intervened

devoured

hooves

Jason was a brave warrior who to recover the throne that was lawfully his. He embarked on the quest of recovering the which was a piece of golden wool with healing powers. He presented himself before King Aeetes and kindly asked for this item, however, King Aeetes was not going to let go of the most precious object in his kingdom.

Jason offered his services to King Aeetes; he would be at his Whatever the king wanted; Jason would comply. Despite his offer, King Aeetes was not interested, and he only wanted to see this warrior die.

The gods to help Jason by tempering with Medea's mind, King Aeetes's daughter. She fell in love with Jason the moment she saw him, and she was determined to help him. She helped Jason with the trial of the bulls. The magic oil made Jason powerful enough to the angry beasts, control them and then lift a heavy as if it were a tiny shell. swarmed Medea's heart, but also guilt as she had betrayed her father by helping Jason.

King Aeetes was no fool and knew that Jason would have died under the bulls' without help. He discovered what her daughter had done. If he had been an angry lion, he would have her in one bite. Medea knew her father would kill her, so she ran away with Jason.

These two disgraced lovers got on The Argo and headed to Iolcus. What fate was waiting for them ahead?