

1. Draw lines. Make sentences.

- | | | |
|----------------------------------|------|--------------------------|
| ① My aunt gave me a drink | when | he got some new pencils. |
| ② My brother drew a monster | when | they went to the beach. |
| ③ My uncle bought me two e-books | when | I was thirsty. |
| ④ My cousins went swimming | when | it was dirty. |
| ⑤ My parents cleaned the kitchen | when | it was my birthday. |

2. Read and draw lines.

- | | | |
|------------------------|------|------------------------------|
| ① Here's the present | that | ate three fat flies. |
| ② This is the mountain | that | Jim chose for his teacher. |
| ③ There's the frog | that | we went on last weekend. |
| ④ These are the plants | that | talks like a parrot. |
| ⑤ This is the walk | that | we grow in our field. |
| ⑥ Those are the bees | that | Jim's parents climbed. |
| | | flew above our blue flowers. |

3. Draw lines. Make sentences.

- | | | |
|-----------------------------|---------|-------------------------------|
| ① Meg's friends like her | because | her teacher wants it. |
| ② Meg's got lots of pencils | because | she's happy and funny. |
| ③ Meg wants her trainers | because | she puts things on top of it. |
| ④ Meg needs her homework | because | she's got a sports lesson. |
| ⑤ Meg loses her homework | because | she enjoys drawing. |