

Hamed was very happy. It was raining and windy, but this was perfect weather for Hamed. He could test his amazing new invention – the Umbrella Hat!

After walking for a few minutes, Hamed knew his invention worked wonderfully.

Did the hat keep the rain off? Yes! Did the wind blow the hat off? No!

Hamed smiled and walked calmly down the street.

A. Read the first part of the story. Circle T(true) Or F (false)

1. It was hot and sunny.
2. Hamed's new invention was the Umbrella Hat.
3. Hamed wasn't happy with his invention.

Hamed saw three boys from his school. They were running quickly to Hamed.

"What's this?" said Ali, the biggest of the three boys. "It's an Umbrella Hat" said Hamed, quietly. The boys laughed at Hamed. They took his Umbrella

Hat and threw it on the floor. "It looks stupid!" said Ali, and the boys ran off.

B. Read the second part of the story. Choose the correct answer

1. Hamed saw
2. Their reactions were

Hamed felt sad and angry. But then he saw his uncle Salem, looking at him kindly.
"Don't be sad, Hamed" said uncle Salem. He picked up the Umbrella Hat and carefully cleaned it.

"This is a great invention, Hamed. You are a very clever young man!" said Salem.
"One day you will be a famous inventor!"

Hamed felt happy again. He said thank you to his uncle and went back home to think of more 'crazy inventions'!

Read the third part of the story. Choose the correct answer

1. His uncle told him that
2. At the end of the story, Hamed felt

3. Read the story again. Drag and drop the words.

quietly

carefully

kindly calmly

quickly

Look at the highlighted words in the story. Answer the questions below.

Part 1

How did Hamed's invention work?

Wonderfully

How did Hamed walk down the street?

Part 2

How were the boys running?

How did Hamed speak to the boys?

Part 3

How did Salem look at Hamed?

How did Salem clean the Umbrella Hat?
