

Science Quiz: Traits that Help Animals Meet Their Needs (Part 1)

Drag each word and place it with the right body part.

tongue trunk jaw claws pincers beak wings
 webbed feet fin flippers paw hoof legs

Match the animals with the trait that helps them move.

They have wings and feathers that help them fly.

Horses, cows, sheep

They have hooves that help them walk long distances.

Frogs and ducks

They have flippers that enable them to swim.

Dolphin, whale, shark

They have webbed feet that help them swim.

Cats, dogs, bears, wolves

They have fins on their back that help them swim.

Monkeys

They have prehensile hands, feet and tails.

Birds

They have thick skin on their paws.

Seal, penguin, turtle

Match the animals with the trait that helps them get their food.

They can camouflage with their surroundings.

mouse, rat, squirrel, beaver

They are immune to the poison of scorpions.

octopus, chameleon

They have a sharp, hooked beak to tear their food.

anteater, elephant, sloth bear

They have sharp claws to hold and tear their food.

lions, tigers, some birds, bears

They have pincers to hold their food.

crabs, scorpions, and lobsters

They use their long snout or trunk to get food.

owls, hawks, and eagles

They have big teeth to eat roots and nuts.

meerkats

They have very powerful jaws to crush food.

frog, giraffe, & bats

They have a long, sticky tongue to get their food.

wolf eel, pirhana, & crocodile

Choose the correct name of each animal.

