Last summer, my family and I went on a sailing holiday in the Bahamas. It was sunny weather and we were having a wonderful time. One morning, we decided to sail our yacht to a small island.

We were enjoying our trip when, suddenly, the sky got dark. Soon, it was raining heavily and the wind was blowing. The boat was rolling from side to side. "Quick!" my dad said. "Take down the sail!" We didn't have time. The wind overturned the boat and we fell into the water. We were screaming in panic when a fishing boat appeared.

They threw us ropes, pulled us aboard and took us back to the port. We felt shocked but relieved. We had a very lucky escape!
