

1. Match the phrases with their definitions:

bird's eye view	get on and off easily, usually without having to buy a new ticket
millennium	worth more than the money it costs
fortress	the view of something when you are looking down on it from a height
faint-hearted	something you do that is unforgettable
hop on and off	a period of a thousand years, e.g. 1000–1999; the celebration at the end of a thousand year period
served many purposes	has been used for many different things
the experience of a lifetime	the historical period which lasted from the end of the Roman Empire to the Renaissance
scared out of your wits	a building like a castle
great value for money	to be extremely frightened or terrified
medieval	if someone is faint-hearted, they are not very confident and are afraid to do things that might be dangerous