

4 Listening: Where are you going on holiday?

- 1 Lilly [] holiday!
 Harry Well, there are only a few weeks to go.
 Lilly Have you []
 Harry Yes. Most of it's along [] have to [] very often. In fact, there are very few real roads that cross the area. If you wanted to [], this would be a great place to live because it's really difficult to get to.
- 2 Sam What are your plans for this summer?
 Amy My best friend and I have decided to help the []
 Sam Really? That sounds more like hard work than a holiday!
 Amy Well, it depends on what you understand by the word 'holiday'! I love visiting historic buildings, and the [] and they organise []
 Discovery holidays for young adults.
 Sam So where are you going and what are you doing?
 Amy We're going to help do some conservation work at Lindisfarne Castle. It's on a small island, [] east coast of England and the views are spectacular.
 Sam A castle? If I spent a few nights there, I'd be worried about meeting [] at night!
 Amy I hope we don't because you can't get off the island at times because of storms!

- 3 Andy []
 Ann [] I was expecting a quiet [] but there were loads of people everywhere.
 Andy Was there any nightlife?
 Ann There was too much. The town was full of clubs, bars and restaurants, and the only shops were selling souvenirs.
 Andy [] I spoke to you because we were thinking of going there.
 Ann Well, I wouldn't go if you want to relax! Instead of relaxing, we came back feeling stressed!
- 4 Jack My mum and dad are talking about [] in Spain at the same hotel that we went to last year, but I []
 Chloe Why? I'd be really pleased if I had the chance to go to Spain! A nice hotel near the beach with everything organised – if only we stayed in places like that!
 Jack Well, last year, we never went anywhere and spent all our time in [] which was really boring. The hotel was quite old as well and hadn't been decorated in years. What did you do?
 Chloe We stayed at home and went on day trips.
 Jack At least you did different things. I wish we had done different things in Spain!
