The Present

Lia is sad. It is February. In March, her family is moving (עוברת / تنتقل) to England. But Lia doesn't want to live in England. She wants to live in Israel. She wants to go to her school in Israel.

The children in Lia's class are also sad. They want to give Lia a present. They have an idea. They want to make a special blanket for Lia.

The children buy a lot of white T-shirts. They draw pictures and write their names on the shirts. They put the shirts together to make a beautiful blanket. They bring the blanket to Lia's house and give it to her.

Lia is very happy. She can use the blanket in England and think about her good friends in Israel.
