

COUNTABLE AND UNCOUNTABLE NOUNS

1 Are the nouns countable (C) or uncountable (U)?

___ lemons	___ oil
___ pork	___ potatoes
___ rice	___ sugar
___ peppers	___ apples

2 Complete the dialogue with some, any, much or many.

1. A: I'd like eggs, please.
B: Of course. How would you like?
A: Six, please. Are there tomatoes?
B: Certainly. How do you need?
A: A kilo, please.
2. A: I'd like olive oil.
B: How do you need?
A: Half a bottle. Is there flour?
B: Certainly. How do you need?
A: A kilo, please.

3 Complete the sentences with some or any.

1. There isn't _____ sugar in my coffee.
2. I have a wife but I don't have _____ children.
3. There are _____ plates on the desk.
4. Have we got _____ bananas?
5. Is there _____ cheese in the fridge?
6. Did you buy _____ juice?
7. Would you like _____ water with your coffee?
8. I'd like _____ strawberries, please.
9. Are there _____ chairs in the office?
10. We've got _____ pictures, but we still need a lamp.

4 Complete the questions with How much or How many.

1. _____ potatoes do we need?
2. _____ milk do you have?
3. _____ juice would you like?
4. _____ eggs do you want?
5. _____ apples do you need for the recipe?
6. _____ oil do you need?