

A | Listening for Main Ideas. Listen to a news report about beauty. Match each scientist or group of scientists with the correct research results.

Scientists	Research Results
1. Judith Langlois ____	a. Men's ideas about beauty and attractiveness evolved over thousands of years.
2. Pamela M. Pallett Stephen Link Kang Lee ____	b. Symmetry is a key part of what makes a face beautiful.
3. Victor Johnston David Perrett ____	c. There is a "golden ratio" for the ideal distance between the eyes, the mouth, and the edge of the face.
4. Don Symons ____	d. Men prefer large eyes, full lips, and a small nose and chin.

B | Listening for Details. Listen again and circle the correct answer to each question or statement.

- According to the research, most people think that a beautiful face is _____.
 - a face with small eyes
 - average and almost symmetrical
 - disturbing to observers
- The "golden ratio" for the length of a face states that the distance between the eyes and the mouth _____.
 - is 36 percent of the length of the whole face
 - is 56 percent of the length of the whole face
 - is 66 percent of the length of the whole face
- What facial features did scientists Victor Johnston and David Perrett think men find most beautiful?
 - blue eyes, full lips, and a strong chin
 - large eyes, full lips, and a small chin
 - large eyes, thin lips, and a strong nose
- What conclusion does the reporter, Gwen Silva, probably agree with?
 - Beauty is in the eye of the beholder.
 - There is no variation in the ideas about beauty between cultures.
 - People from the same culture mostly agree on what makes someone beautiful.