Dear Jennifer,
Hi! How are you? What are your plans for next weekend?
1) ..... . I'd love you to come! There will be lots for us to do. It's Halloween on Saturday, too! 2) ..... . Mum is organising the food and baking the birthday cake and Dad has promised to find some CDs and put up the decorations and lights. 3) ..... . I have already chosen my costume, but I won't tell you. It's a surprise!
You're coming by train, aren't you? Well, just give me a ring from the train station and I can come and pick you up with my mum. The party starts at 7 but try to come early so we can have a chat. It's going to be so much fun! 4) ..... . I've missed you.
Take care,
Sally

A You could bring the birthday cake.
B You should wear a costume, too.
C We're having a surprise party for my brother.
D Please try and come.
E So, we've decided to have a fancy dress party.

Dear Mandy,
I just got your letter and I'm sorry to hear you're so upset. I'd be happy to help you. There are bullies in all schools. 1) ..... . Here are some things you can do to help deal with the students who bully you.
First of all, you could try talking to your parents and your teachers. 2) ..... .
Or, why don't you just ignore them? They will probably get bored and leave you alone. 3) ..... . There you will make new friends and feel more confident.
I hope that I have helped you. 4) ..... .
Best wishes,
Helen

A Please write and tell me how everything turns out.
B You could get angry and shout at them, too.
C They can give you support and make you feel better.
D A lot of new students feel the same way as you, so you are not alone.
E Another good idea is to join a school club.
