1- Transform the adjectives given in brackets into adverbs (not all of them need changes) and use them in the comparative form in the sentences.

a. Laura got home _____ Paula did. (late)

b. Pedro sings _____ his brother. (beautiful)

c. You work _____ me. (hard)

d. Louisa kicked the ball _____ Michael. (far)

e. The red bunny ran _____ the other bunnies. (fast)

f. This food tastes _____ yesterday's. (bad)

g. She ate _____ her little brother. (slow)

h. Do people drive _____ in big cities _____ in small towns? (aggressively)

i. You must do your homework _____ this. (careful)

j. Clara jumped _____ Josh. (high)

k. I run _____ distances in the morning _____ in the afternoon. (short)

l. The light in the kitchen shines _____ the one in the bathroom. (bright)

m. She screamed _____ she ever had. (loud)

n. Modern cars run _____ in the past. (quiet)

o. He's _____ at English _____ most of his friends.

LIVEWORKSHEETS