The letter 'Nn' produces the /nnnnnn/ sound. The /nnnnnn/ can be heard at the beginning of words such as nose, night, nest and nail.

LEARNING TO WRITE THE LETTER N

A large uppercase 'N' and a smaller lowercase 'n' are shown on a three-line grid. The top line is blue, the middle line is dashed blue, and the bottom line is red. The 'N' starts at the top line, goes down to the bottom line, then diagonally up to the middle line, and finally down to the bottom line. The 'n' starts at the middle dashed line, goes down to the bottom line, and then curves back up to the middle dashed line. There are four horizontal dashed blue lines: one above the 'N', one between the 'N' and 'n', one below the 'n', and one further to the right.

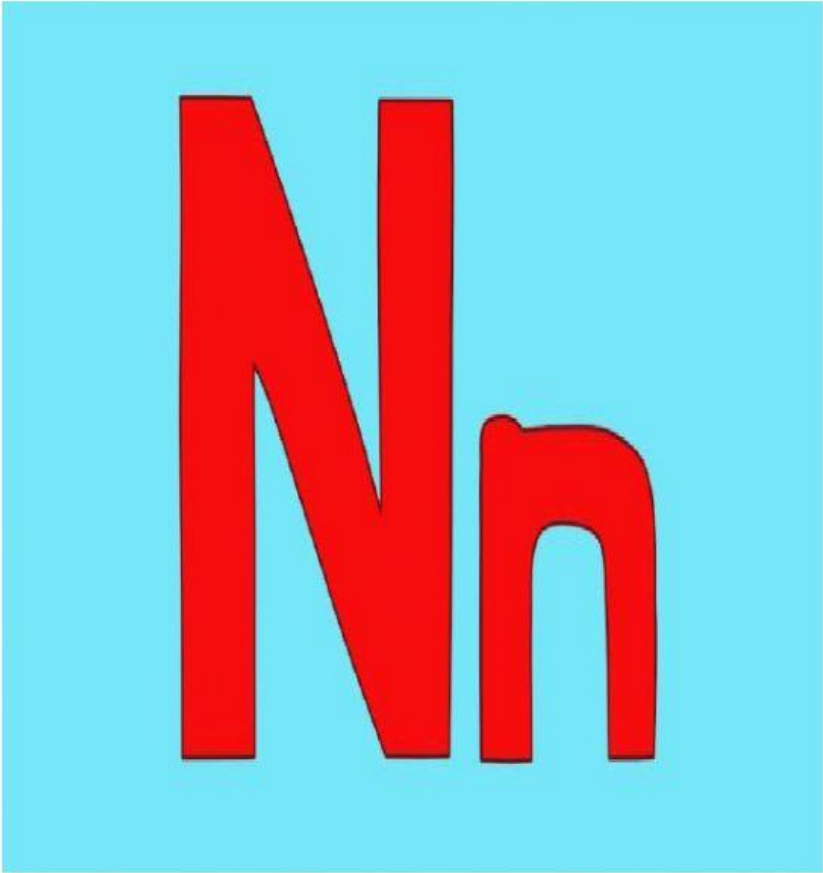

A large, empty rounded rectangle with an orange border, intended for handwriting practice.
