

A sentence fragment is a group of words that doesn't state a complete thought.

Sometimes a fragment is missing a subject, and sometimes a verb.

Other times, a fragment has a subject and a verb, but the thought still isn't complete

Sentence or Fragment?

Type in “sentence” or “fragment” in the box.
Next, check your answers.

1. Mistakes are an important part of learning.
2. Stretch mistakes.
3. When you make stretch mistakes.
4. Sloppy mistakes can happen when we are tired or working too quickly.
5. High stakes mistakes, like the GED test.
6. Reflection is an important part of the learning process.
7. When we reflect.
8. If you make a mistake, take some time to reflect.
9. Getting information from our mistakes.

10. Stretch mistakes, a-ha moment mistakes, sloppy misktaes, and high-stakes mistakes happen to all of us.