

Using the information you know about the universe, write a text comparing the planets of our solar system.

A large, empty, rounded rectangular box with a black border, designed for a student to write their response to the assignment.