

Grade 10

Methods of production

1. Match a method of production with the correct description.

1) a method of production where similar items are produced together in groups.

Flow production

2) a method of production where large number of the same products are made.

Batch production

3) a method of production which involves producing unique items that meet the specific requirements of customers

Job production

2. Match the pictures to the correct method of production:

Flow production

Job production

Batch production