

Name _____ Date _____

Quiz: A Summer's Reading – Vocabulary part 1

Fill in 10 blanks with words from the word bank:

להרויח	לשוטט, לנדוד	סבלנות	כדאי, שווה	להירשם	לכבד
לפרוש, להפסיק, לעזוב	לעלות על העצבים	להכיר, לזהות	להדמות ל-	מבויש	לא מרוצה

George Stoyonivich was almost twenty years old. He (1)_____ high school when he was 16 years old because he didn't have (2)_____ to sit in class and listen to the teachers telling him what to do. He didn't have a job and was (3)_____ that people would know that he wasn't working. His father was poor and didn't (4)_____ much money from his job in the fish market and his mother was dead. He had an older sister named Sophie, who (5)_____ George- they were both tall and very thin. During the day, George didn't have anything to do and hung around the house, sometimes cleaning it a little when the house (6)_____. In the afternoon he sometimes listened to the baseball game on the radio and read some magazines and the World Almanac. When Sophie asked George if he ever read any good and (7)_____ books, George lied because he was embarrassed about it and wanted Sophie to (8)_____ him. George had no friends in the neighborhood and even the boys his age didn't (9)_____ him when he walked past them on the street. George was very unhappy and (10)_____ with his life. At night he would (11)_____ around the neighborhood and usually ended up in a nice little park outside his neighborhood, where he would sit and dream about a better life for himself.