A So, Mr Price, let's look at your diet. Do you eat vegetables and fruit?

B Er, no, doctor. I                    vegetables and I                    fruit.

A What about meat and fish?

B Well, I                    fish, maybe once or twice a week and I                    chicken. I like steak so I                    steak for lunch and I                    it with chips.
