

The Costello case

1. The crime brainstorming challenge.

Remember what you learnt and fire as many words as possible at each target : people, criminal actions, police actions, adjectives, crime scene.

2. Step into your first crime scene.

- Describe the crime scene. (there is... there are...)
- Say what you can about the protagonists of the story. (Joe Costello, Walter Felten, Duke Ellington, Mary Russell, Frank O'Connell)
- Try to imagine what happened!

3. Movie time! Step into the Interrogation room.

→ Watch the introduction and find information about the victim.

→ Watch the interrogations and find out about the suspects and their attitudes.

Suspect	Job	Information	He/she looks/sounds:
Frank O'Connell			calm, relaxed, angry, confident, aggressive, on the defensive, upset, cool, nervous, tearful, scared
Mary Russel			calm, relaxed, angry, confident, aggressive, on the defensive, upset, cool, nervous, tearful, scared
Duke Ellington			calm, relaxed, angry, confident, aggressive, on the defensive, upset, cool, nervous, tearful, scared
Walter Felten			calm, relaxed, angry, confident, aggressive, on the defensive, upset, cool, nervous, tearful, scared

→ Using the clues found on the crime scene, decide if they are telling the truth.

I think... didn't tell / told the truth because...
