

Possessive Pronouns

Possessive pronouns show ownership or possession of something.

The possessive pronouns my, your, his, her, its, our, and their are used before nouns.

EXAMPLE: -

Margaret couldn't find her books.

The possessive pronouns mine, yours, his, hers, ours, and theirs can stand alone.

EXAMPLES:

It isn't yours. The ball is hers. Theirs are yellow. Mine is in the backyard.

Write possessive pronouns in the sentences below.

7. On nights at home, Russians love to make tea; it is _____ favorite beverage.
8. Tea and apple cake is a favorite late-night snack of _____.
9. St. Petersburg is full of flea markets where merchants show off _____ wares.
10. The traders set up _____ stalls along Nevsky Prospekt.
11. Marie invited us on a trip to one of _____ favorite places, the Kirov Islands.
12. This place has a charm all _____ own.
13. During World War II, the citizens of St. Petersburg endured a 900-day siege of _____ city by the Germans.
14. We saw a man with a ribbon on _____ coat, showing that he was a veteran of that siege.
15. People who suffered through that period wear _____ ribbons proudly.
16. Snow, ice, hunger, and disease took _____ toll among the brave residents of St. Petersburg.
17. _____ name at the time was Leningrad, in honor of Lenin, a leader of the revolution of 1917.

