

1. Agriculture was so important for the Mayans that they used to think their gods created humans with corn.
2. Mayans used to establish their civilizations in Mexico and other areas of what today is central America.
3. By 900 A.D., the Mayan civilization collapsed due to war, volcanic eruptions and droughts.
4. Mayans made a lot of advances in Astronomy and Mathematics, in fact humankind didn't use to know the concept of zero until the Mayans invented it.
5. Mayans used to build their urban centers with stone.
6. Sadly, Maya's civilization used to be full of violence because they always tried to expand their control on territory through war.
7. Mayas used to depend a lot on their agriculture so their calendar guided them through

[illegible]