

| | | |
|----------|--|--|
| migrated | | v.s. (versus)/ opposing, disagreeing |
| divide | | a large organized group of soldiers who are trained to fight on land |
| peoples | | 100 years |
| victory | | to separate into parts; to make something separate into parts |
| against | | more important, powerful or easy to notice than other things |
| dominant | | to move from one part of the world to another |
| century | | men and women who live in one country/region |
| army | | success in a game or a war |

| | | |
|-----------|--|---|
| slave | | to start or create an organization, a system, etc. |
| monk | | to make sure that somebody/something is not harmed, injured, damaged, etc. |
| rights | | people in general, living together in communities |
| legacy | | a person who is owned by another person and is forced to work for them |
| society | | things that you can do because the law says so |
| establish | | money or property that is given to you by somebody when they die/ a situation that exists now because of events, actions, etc. that took place in the past |
| protect | | a member of a religious group of men who often live apart from other people in a monastery and who do not marry or have personal possessions |

| | | |
|------------|--|--|
| invade | | before something was changed |
| rule | | to enter a country, town, etc. using military force in order to take control of it |
| noble | | to make your permanent home in a country or an area |
| originally | | to lead a country (to be the queen/king of a country) |
| settle | | belonging to a family of high social rank (aristocratic) |