

Do Right All the Time

The families in the community were busy cleaning their place. They painted the walls, planted trees, and watered the plants. Everyone was happy doing their work.

1

There was a boy who was sweeping the street. When no one is looking, he put the garbage that gathered into the manhole.

2

A man caught him. "Why did you throw the garbage into the manhole?"

3

"This way is easier to get rid of garbage," the boy said. "Anyway, the water will carry the dirt away."

4

"But what you did can cause a flood," the man said. But the boy did not listen to him.

5

Later, that day, it rained. The rain poured all night. The whole community was flooded with dirty water.

6

The boy saw what happened and remembered what he did and what the man told him. The boy was sorry for what he did.

7

"Now I know why I should not throw garbage anywhere. Next time, I'll be responsible in keeping the community clean," he vowed to himself.
