

It _____ Saturday night. Everything was ready for the sleepover. Mom had the food _____ in the kitchen. She had the list of do's and don'ts for her daughter and friends.

Allison's bedroom was ready; she put pillows and blankets on the floor so her friends could be comfortable. Her CDs were _____, their favorite scary movies were ready, and the computer was on.

The doorbell _____. When Allison _____ downstairs to open the door, she _____ the sky. It was really cloudy. There was a big storm coming.

Mom read the rules. They could have lots of fun, use the computer, have pillow fights, make blanket forts, and stay up late. But they couldn't jump on the bed, make a lot of noise, use the telephone, and make a mess in the room or in the bathroom. If they _____ any of the rules, there would be trouble.

As soon as Mom _____ reading the do's and don'ts, everyone ran upstairs. They _____ talking and laughing; they were all glad to be there. Brianna and Nicole _____ to music while Natalie and Hannah used the computer to read about their favorite singers. Brianna, Hannah, and Haley _____ to watch scary movies. Everyone _____ on the floor and on the bed, eating popcorn in front of the TV, and ready for the movie to start.

They were watching the movie when the storm started. There was strong thunder and lightning. The lights went off. Hannah was so afraid of lightning that she started screaming and jumping on the bed. She _____ so hard that she fell and hurt her knee.

Mom _____ the thump on the floor and ran upstairs to see what happened. She opened the door and saw Hannah on the floor. Hannah was crying, and Sarah and Nicole were trying to help her. Mom was upset because they broke her rules and someone got hurt, so she _____ to punish Allison the next week.
