Boring version: A miserable day

Dear Paul!

I would like to tell you about the day I have had. I woke up and did not want to leave my bed. After I had breakfast, I ran to the bus station, but I missed my bus to school. I had to wait for the next bus. When I got on, I realized I had forgotten to do my English homework. When I arrived at school I had to tell my teacher I did not have my homework. She looked at me and told me that I had to hand it in tomorrow along with today's homework. I came home for lunch and my dad had cooked vegetable lasagna, which I hate. Yuk! I spent all afternoon doing my English homework. However, in the evening I had time to play the computer game which I told you about in my last e-mail.

How was your day?

Yours'
