

Phrasal Verbs Related to Travel

Match the phrasal verbs with their definitions:

Phrasal verb			Definition
1.	check in		A. land
2.	go off		B. explore
3.	look around		C. start your journey
4.	run up		D. end you stay at a hotel
5.	touch down		E. start your stay at a hotel
6.	check out		F. return
7.	set off		G. say goodbye
8.	come back	4	H. accumulate
9.	see off		I. leave

check in	look around	run up	touch down	go off
check out	set off	come back	see (somebody) off
-		at 7am and my parents at the airport. Th	nere was a huge qui	eue when we	but fortunately we boa	rded the plane on		we went to the hotel, got out our bikinis and			_to the beach. During the week we had olenty time to		We saw the B	acardi Rum Plant,	the Ermita Espina
Ruins and the Punto	Boringuen Lighth	ouse. When we _		_we had a shock.
Ne'd	a £100 bill at	the hotel bar. Oh	, well it was worth	n it. We had so

Your turn:

- Do you like it when people see you off at the airport / bus station or is it embarrassing? Why?
- 2. Have you ever run up a big hotel bill? What did it include?
- 3. When you go on holiday do you like to look around the area or relax by the pool?
- 4. When you go on a daytrip do you like to set off early? Why?
- Do you get nervous when your plane takes off and touches down?
- 6. Have you ever gone on holiday and not wanted to come back?
- 7. What do you need to do before you set off on a holiday?

is LCollec What's the most annoying thing about checking in and out of a hotel?