

READING

We interviewed the young actress Martha Willows. She will play Grunhilda, an evil witch, in the TV series "The Dark Side." Martha said: "I am a very big fan of the series. I read all the books and Brunhilda is an interesting part."

• How old were you when you started acting?

My first job was for a dishwashing detergent commercial when I was 5 years old.

• What do you do when you aren't working?

I live at home in Los Angeles with my family and my sister Nelly. Some of my hobbies are playing the piano and violin, dancing and riding my horse, Black. I also go to high school.

• Do you go to a private school?

Yes, and for the first time in a long time, I'm studying at a school. I studied at home and on film sets before. But now I want to go to high school.

• What are your plans for the future?

I am going to go to college, I want to speak at least three languages. I want to be a film director when I get older. And of course, I'll always act.
