

Nombre y Apellidos: _____
Nº: _____ Clase: _____
25-29 Enero 2021

| Read the sentences and write animals or plants.

- a. Most of them can be seen with the naked eye. _____
- b. Most of them can move about. _____
- c. They make their own food. _____
- d. They cannot move about. _____
- e. They feed on other living things. _____

| Unscramble the letters and write the words under the correct type of fungi.

estysa

smormhuso

duslom

Tick (✓) the correct groups.

	animals	plants	algae	fungi	bacteria
They make their own food.
They feed on other living things.
They can move about.
They cannot move about.
They can be seen with the naked eye.
They can only be seen with a microscope.

Colour the vertebrates in green and the invertebrates in orange.

reptiles

worms

birds

molluscs

sponges

cnidarians

fish

mammals

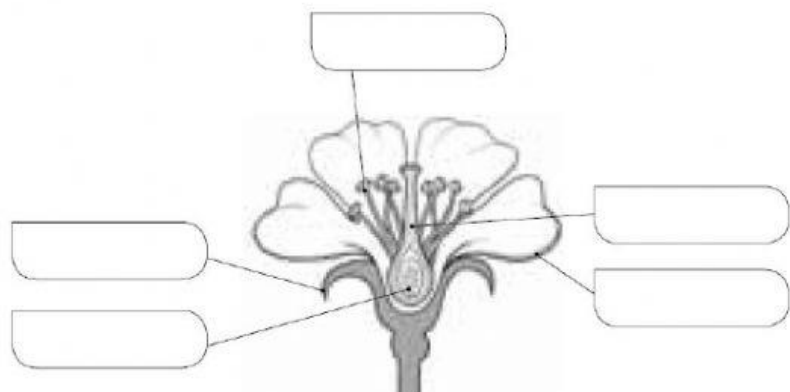

arthropods

amphibians

Find the parts of the flower and label the diagram. Then, colour the female parts blue and the male parts red.

g	p	e	t	a	l	i
b	i	s	c	y	e	h
a	s	k	n	s	g	t
s	t	a	m	e	n	w
t	i	s	u	p	s	o
i	l	o	v	a	r	y
p	d	z	e	l	b	g

Match the two halves and write complete sentences about bacteria.

- a. They are the smallest and
- b. Some bacteria live
- c. Some are very useful and
- d. We use bacteria to make
- e. You need a microscope

- to observe them.
- others can cause illnesses.
- yoghurt, vinegar and medicines.
- simplest living things.
- inside other living things.

Read and match.

mosses
gymnosperms
ferns
angiosperms

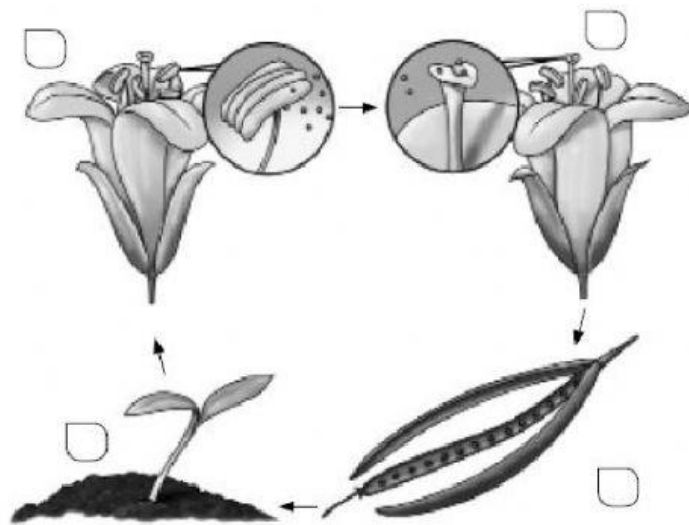

flowering plants

non-flowering plants

Complete the sentences about the reproduction of plants. Then, write a, b, c or d next to the drawings.

germinates – seeds – pistil – stamens

- Pollen is formed in the _____.
- A grain of pollen reaches the _____ of another flower.
- The ovary matures and turns into fruit. The fruit contains the _____.
- When a seed falls to the ground, it _____ and a new plant grows.

Unscramble the letters and label the photos of the different areas.

setfro

busndrahl

tedres

salrsdang

Read the sentences and complete.

desert – shrubland – forest – grassland

- a. A _____ is an area where many trees grow close together.
- b. A _____ is an area dominated by grasses.
- c. A _____ is an area dominated by bushes.
- d. A _____ is an area with very few plants.