

A trip to the Amazon

Hello, my name is Paul. My parents always dreamed of visiting the Amazon, the biggest rainforest in the world. Finally, last summer we decided to go.

A very nice guide helped us walk through the Amazon. I was amazed! There was so much vegetation and there were so many different animals!

The guide was always saying: "be careful", "please stay with me". I was listening to him, but I also was admiring the beautiful nature.

We were walking for hours and hours and we were drinking water every 5 minutes, it was very hot!

My parents were smiling all the time, they were so happy to be there!

Suddenly, I saw a monkey on a tree. He was looking at me! I went towards the tree to say hello but when I turned around, my family and the guide weren't there. I was lost!

I was shouting: "moooooom", "daaaaaaad", but no answer. I was crying for minutes and minutes. The birds were looking at me. The wind was blowing. The monkey was listening to me, but, of course, he couldn't help me.

Finally, I heard a voice. It was my mom. She was running and crying too. I said I was very sorry and they just said: I love you!

1. Where did the family go?

- a) To a rainforest                      b) to a big city                      c) to the zoo

2. Who helped the family visit the place?

- a) the animals                      b) a guide                      c) Nobody

3. What was there in the Amazon?

- a) Trees and water                      b) dangerous animals                      c) a big variety of vegetation and animals

4. What was the guide always saying?

- a) He wasn't saying anything                      b) he was singing                      c) he was saying it was important to stay with him.

5. What was Paul doing when the guide was talking?

- a) He wasn't listening                      b) he was playing                      c) he was paying attention and looking around.

6. What was the family doing for hours?

- a) They were walking and drinking water                      b) they were tired                      c) they were sitting under a tree

7. What was the monkey doing when he saw Paul?

- a) the monkey was jumping on the tree                      b) the monkey was looking at Paul
c) the monkey was eating

8. What was Paul doing when he was lost?

- a) He was calling his parents                      b) he was looking at the animals                      c) he was running

9. What was Paul's mom doing when she saw Paul?

a) she was smiling    b) she was walking and listening to the guide    c) she was crying and running