Name: _____ Date: _____

Pronouns

Singular Pronouns
I	me	my	mine
He	you	your	yours
Her	she	it	him
	His	hers	its

Plural Pronouns
we	us	our	ours
you	your	yours	they
them	their	theirs

A pronoun takes the place of a noun or nouns. Pronouns may be singular or plural.

A. Write the pronoun from each sentence.

Example: The clerk took them to the food aisle. Them_____

1. Pablo said he needed some bird seed. _____
2. The clerk showed him two kinds of seed. _____
3. Katy looked at treats for her cat. _____
4. They each selected the same brand. _____
5. The clerk said it was a popular brand. _____
6. Larry's parents gave her a new basketball. _____
7. Kevin thanked them before breakfast. _____
8. Maria is very happy with their gift. _____
9. Rachel and Thomas like it too. _____
10. We should have an exciting afternoon. _____

B. Write a pronoun to replace the underlined words. Then write if the pronoun is singular or plural.

Example: Karen wanted a party for her birthday. She , singular

1. The parrot sang a funny song. _____, _____
2. Veronica and Jill laughed as the parrot sang. _____, _____
3. April wanted a party for her birthday. _____, _____
4. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas agreed to April's request. _____, _____
5. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas arranged for a surprise. _____, _____
6. The surprise was a visit from a celebrity singer. _____, _____
7. She took photos with the family. _____, _____
8. April and I showed the photos to our friends. _____, _____
9. Mr. Thomas will take us to the singer's next concert. _____, _____
10. April was very excited. _____, _____