Complete the conversation with will, will not, might, might not and the verb in brackets.

- A Do you think you'll be working for the same company in ten years' time?
- B I'm not sure. I ¹ may look for
(look for) a different job if I'm not earning much more than now. It depends on my promotion prospects, too. I hope I ² _____
(be) a manager by then, and I certainly ³ _____
(feel) very satisfied with my job if I'm still in the same position. How about you?
- A I don't think my company ⁴ _____
(exist) in ten years' time. There's a lot of competition from Asia and a lot of factories in our field here are closing. I'm not sure, but I ⁵ _____
(lose) my job in the next few years.
- B Why don't you look for something else now before it's too late?
- A I'm thinking about it, but I still haven't decided. I ⁶ _____
(apply) for a new job until I'm really sure my company is going to close. I've seen a lot of production jobs on the Internet, so I'm sure I ⁷ _____
(find) it difficult to change companies.
- B Well, I'm sure the situation ⁸ _____
(improve) in your company. It ⁹ _____
(be) as bad as it seems at the moment.
- A Yes, you ¹⁰ _____
(be) right. Let's hope so!
