

Adverbs of Frequency

Read the dialogue. How often do they...? Fill in the table using adverbs of frequency.

Paul: Hey Raile! I am going shopping. Do you want to come?

Raile: Sorry, Keiko is coming. We will do the English homework together.

Paul: I see... Well, I never do that homework...

Raile: I do it sometimes but Keiko is very serious, she always does her homework.

Paul: OK, but I am cooking dinner tonight, so you and Keiko should come.

Raile: You are so nice, you always cook dinner for me.

Paul: Well, you sometimes wash the dishes and Keiko always does the shopping...

Raile: I know you hate washing the dishes, so you never wash the dishes.

Paul: Yeah.... Will you wash the dishes tonight?

Raile: Hehe, sure.
