

Put the verbs in the past tense.

Year 50 BC, Egypt

To whom it may concern,

Cleopatra, Queen of Egypt, lives in the city of Alexandria.
She was a woman extraordinary intelligent, she spoke 9 languages.
She has an important library: Alexandria Library. Marco Antonio gives Cleopatra many books, unfortunately the library was destroyed in a fire.

At that time, people drink beer, but also they make with pomegranates a drink called Shedeh. What about milk? She washes with goat's milk, it was a beauty routine.

Food was very similar. They eat pigeons, legumes, vegetables and cakes with nuts and figs, covered with honey.

Cleopatra's society doesn't write with letters, they write with symbols, hieroglyphs. Egyptian society was very rich.
Everybody buys to Egypt gold, linen, papyrus...

Answer the questions. Write COMPLETE sentences.

For example: How many languages did Cleopatra speak? She spoke 9 languages.

What did Egyptians eat?

What drink made from pomegranates did Cleopatra drink?

What symbols did Egyptians write?

What did Marco Antonio give to Cleopatra?

Where did Cleopatra live?

What did people buy to Egypt?