

1. Complete the sentences with the correct word.

scattered appalled serve reluctantly capture elaborate swing faint-hearted assemble defy

- The job of a lion tamer is not for the _____.
- This sculptor is well-known for his _____ statues.
- The horse races were in full _____ when we arrived at the racecourse.
- She _____ agreed to have her picture taken.
- Trevor likes to _____ photos of street scenes with his camera.
- The reporter was _____ by the living conditions in the poor regions of the country.
- The trapeze artists at the circus _____ gravity by flying through the air.
- There were hundreds of sculptures _____ throughout the area for the art festival.
- It can take days for artists to _____ their sculptures for the festival.
- The artist hopes his paintings will _____ their purpose and raise money for charity.

2. Drag the correct word into the sentences.

collect room crowded boost poverty-broken way poverty-stricken busy gather increase

- At midnight people _____ to watch the festival's fireworks.
- Her anger gave _____ to laughter when she realised it was a joke.
- Winning a race at the Royal Ascot can really _____ a jockey's career.
- The charity supports _____ areas of the city.
- The stadium was _____ with thousands of spectators.

