

Picture Composition

Help the children to write a short composition describing the scene above. Encourage them to give the composition a name and to use sentences.

Allow them to dictate where and when the story is happening, who is in it and how would they feel if they were there.

Write the responses below in the space provided.