

Complete the following text using the words/phrases from the box:

being a part of the change - challenges we face daily - equal chance in life - far and wide - grasp - interconnected - must be met
 - no one behind - prevent or reverse these challenges - This matters to each of us - thrive and reach their potential – to issues that take hope away from us

Our planet is a beautiful place. We can easily forget how much it has to offer because we are constantly being reminded of the , from inequalities to poverty to climate change. If nothing changes to stop, , it will only get worse. That is why the United Nations exists.

Everything we stand for is to create a brighter future for every individual, where everyone can
 We want to preserve the good that exists in people, places and the planet and put an end That is why world leaders came together in 2015 and mobilised the 2030 Agenda: a set of 17 goals for sustainable development.

..... because we are all responsible for Our actions today affect our children tomorrow. Everyone deserves a fair and

Through the goals, we can reach because the goals are universal, they leave It's also important to understand that these goals are

We cannot separate poverty from hunger, or education from women's empowerment and so on. If we can that, we are closer to understanding the needs that , and in turn we are closer to achieving the 17 goals. It's time to give back to the planet what the planet has given to us. It's simple and there is no cost.

Discover some of the simple actions you can take to stay on the road to a prosperous planet.