When we write a story we use the Past Simple, Past Continuous and Past Perfect. We also use time expressions to show the order of events:

*In the beginning / At first / First / To begin with ...
Then / After that / Next / The next day ...
In the end / Finally...*

To make a story more interesting, we can use adjectives that describe feelings:

I was / felt glad, happy, excited, proud, enthusiastic, excited, lucky, pleased, surprised, anxious, concerned, worried, terrible, angry, upset, annoyed...
