

ORGANIZATION OF THE STATE

democracy	law	1978
Government	Spanish Constitution	elections
rights	citizens	Head of State

Spain is a _____ because all _____ are equal and have the same rights and obligations. People can freely elect their rulers in the _____.

These rights and obligations are written in the _____. The Constitution is the most important _____ in Spain. The present Constitution was written and approved in _____.

The Constitution lists:

- The _____ and duties of citizens.
- The institutions of the State. The major Spanish institutions are the _____, the Parliament, the _____ and the Courts.