

Complete with the preposition:

1. He is speaking so fast that I can't get his speech
2. She is so arrogant and she is always looking on people. As a result, she feels difficult to get with colleagues.
3. I haven't got a clue how homeless people get
4. If a patient keeps doctors' advice he will get any disease very soon.
5. In a few hours I managed to get the bank service to solve my problem.
6. The gossips about celebrities get quickly.
7. It's time to get to our project. As I can't do it alone I need to get with my colleagues.
8. Look! It's dangerous. The pedestrians always look street dances or listen to street musicians.
9. You shouldn't look and regret about your past but it's worth looking to predict any nuisance.
10. My mum is tolerant, she puts with naughty children in the kindergarten. I look to her with admiration.
11. When I was a child I looked to my birthday, coming with extraordinary ideas for parties.
12. She never looks Her notes before public speeches. She tries to get of confusing questions or provoking comments.
13. If you have time, just get your car and look my house to chat for a while.
14. if you need some information you should look in the Net.
15. If I come against the problems I can always look my parents.

2. Match the phrasal verbs with their meaning:

keep up with	be the result of	come up with	light training before exercising
get on with	use all of sth and leave nothing left	be tied up with	leave the bus stand up for	stay at the same level as	grow out of	take a bus get round to	avoid	drop out of	be very busy with
get out of	find time to	get on	develop from sth
run out of	defend	get off	have an idea
come down to	be friends with	warm-up	leave school or course