

A. Read each statement and choose whether it is a fact or an opinion.

1. I have the most creative students in grade 2.
2. My cousin, Shamaa is the best cook in our family.
3. UAE was founded on December 2, 1971.
4. Abu Dhabi is the capital of the UAE.
5. The tallest building in the world is in Dubai.

B. Read the passage. Think about what parts are facts and what parts are opinions.

Ali's dad got a new job. They moved to a new house in a new town. Ali likes the new house. He thinks it is nice. His room has a window that looks out on the back yard. The bed and dresser from his old house are in his new room. All of his toys are in his new room, too. He likes his new room. He hopes he will like his new school.

Click the word "fact" if it is true or it really happened in the story. Click the word "opinion" if it is what someone thinks or believes.

1. The bed and dresser from Ali's old house are in his room in the new house.

FACT

OPINION

2. Ali thinks his new house is nice.

FACT

OPINION

3. Ali's dad got a new job.

FACT

OPINION

4. All of his toys are in his new room.

FACT

OPINION

5. Ali's room has a window that looks out on the back yard.

FACT

OPINION