

Activate B1/ unit 5 test

GOOD LUCK:)

Task 1 Fill in the gaps with the correct prepositions:

1. It's wrong to blame other people your own mistakes.
2. I hardly ever argue my best friend.
3. Stop shouting me and let's discuss things calmly instead.
4. You shouldn't judge people their appearance only.
5. I strongly disapprove gossiping.
6. Why are you staring me? Am I dirty?
7. Nobody ever laughs my jokes. I wonder why.

Task 2 Complete the sentences with the words from the box:

bothering	thump	fastened	posh	obey	revolting	sort out
names	teasing	illegal	banged	rude	demanded	shoved

1. I'm not properly dressed to have a meal in such a restaurant.
2. He the people aside, trying to get to the front of the queue.
3. A sack full of potatoes fell to the ground with a loud
4. Stop me with your questions! I've got work to do.
5. The robber marched up to the cashier and money from her.
6. If you don't stop calling each other, I'll tell your mum!
7. You must school rules.
8. When Max his head against the wall, he was taken to hospital straightaway.
9. Make sure you have your seatbelts before we leave.
10. It's to sell alcohol to someone below the age of 18.
11. Those insects look Are you really going to eat them?
12. Stop the cat, Molly! If you pull its tail, it hurts!
13. My best friend always helps me to my problems.
14. I think it's time you talked to your class teacher. Your classmates can't make those comments about you!

Task 3 Rewrite the sentences using MUST/ CAN'T/ MIGHT (NOT):

1. Perhaps he doesn't know what to do.
He what to do.
2. I'm sure she likes you.
She you.
3. I'm sure they aren't angry with you.

They angry with you.

4. Perhaps he wants to quit his job.
He to quit his job.

5. I'm sure they live near here.
They near here.

6. Perhaps she doesn't want to come to your party.
She to come to your party.

7. I'm sure he doesn't drive a Porsche.
He a Porsche.

8. Perhaps he doesn't remember your name.
He your name.

9. Perhaps they are at work now.
They at work now.

Task 4 Write the verbs in the correct form using the 1st or 2nd Conditional:

1. If I were you, I (talk) to him directly.
2. What you (do) if you met a celebrity in the street?
3. If she (arrive) late again, she'll get fired.
4. You (get) much better marks if you did some revision before your tests.
5. They will lend you the money if you (ask) them.
6. If Mark calls me again, I (tell) him the truth.
7. Unless you try harder, you (not/ win).
8. She'd have more free time if she (be) better organised.
9. His English won't improve unless he (learn) vocabulary regularly.
10. If they (not/ start) so early, they would work long hours.
11. Unless she wore old-fashioned clothes, she (look) much better.
12. She would save some money if she (not/ buy) so many cosmetics.
13. If they meet deadlines, they (not/ lose) their jobs.
14. Unless he (do) his homework, he won't watch a film tonight.
15. Paul (not/ make) his teachers angry if he didn't misbehave in class.