Clara pushes Colin on to the ground!

They aren't apples, Colin! Never eat them! They're very dangerous.

1

Suddenly Colin and Clara hear children's voices.

Help! Help!

Listen!

2

But how can the children get out?

Open the door!

A door! But where is it? I can't see a door!

3

Then Colin has an idea.

3704

I wonder ...

4

He puts the numbers into his calculator ...

Three ... seven ... zero ... four ... No. It's no good.

5

Colin turns his calculator upside down.

Look! It spells a word! H - O - L - E! Hole!

I can see a small hole!

6

Colin puts his hand into the hole and a door opens in the tree!

Come on, quick!

7

But the giant spiders are angry!

Oh no, Clara, look!

8

Run everyone!

Wait! Turn it upside down!

I don't know! What can we do? Think, Colin!

It's the children! They're in the tree!

Oh yuck! Thank you, Clara.
