First Day Archaeologist!

Mary always wanted to be an archaeologist. She loved _____ and learning (School Subject)

about _____ through all the _____ they left behind. Now she was (Noun) (Noun)

getting the chance to _____ and _____ on a real archaeological site.
(Verb) (Verb)

Mary put on her _____ pants and _____ sleeves to protect her legs
(Adjective) (Adjective)

and arms from ticks and _____. She put on a _____ hat to (Noun) (Adjective)

protect her from the sun's _____ rays, she put on _____ work boots (Adjective) (Adjective)

so she wouldn't hurt her _____ with any of the sharp _____ or pointy (Body part) (Pl. Noun)

_____ on the site. Lastly, she pulled on a bright _____ safety-
(Pl. Noun) (Adjective)

_____ to keep her safe. Picking up a _____ trowel, Mary (Article of Clothing) (Adjective)

packed it neatly in her _____ where she had already packed some string, (Noun)

_____, _____, and a tape measure. Then she picked up her (Noun) (Noun)

rainbow _____ and headed out the _____ for her first excavation.
(Noun) (Part of a house)

Click here to hear the original story