Infinitive vs Gerund Workshop

Let's take a look first!

Infinitive	Gerund
You add TO before the verb. Example: Read > to read.	You add the -ing ending to verb. Example: Read > Reading

Read and write the gerund or infinitive that comes after each verb

1. I practice playing piano for an hour every day. _____
2. I prefer to stay home on rainy days. _____
3. Do you enjoy watching movies at night? _____
4. Did you decided to go to Daniela's house? _____
5. I want to travel next week to Cartagena. _____
6. I'm considering buying a new car. _____
7. Do you like to read? _____
8. What do you need to do tonight? _____

Read again and write G (gerund) or I (infinitive).

1. ____ 2. ____ 3. ____ 4. ____

5. ____ 6. ____ 7. ____ 8. ____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Complete the sentences using the correct forms of verbs:

1. I'm considering _____ (buy) a new book this week.
2. She enjoys _____ (play) the bass.
3. They want _____ (move) into a bigger house.
4. She prefers _____ (drink) hot chocolate rather than coffee.
5. Marianna loves _____ (watch) romantic movies.
6. I hope _____ (see) you again on Christmas.
7. The students finished _____ (do) the workshop.
8. Can you imagine _____ (run) fast as Flash?
9. They start _____ (paint) the house at 9:00 AM.
10. She hates _____ (do) Math assignments.
11. They decided _____ (buy) a new house.
12. Leyla practices _____ (play) piano every day.
13. They agree _____ (be) at the party at 7:30 PM
14. She likes _____ (cook) breakfasts.
15. Do you need _____ (practice) for tomorrow's quiz?

LIVEWORKSHEETS