

English Download Unit 1 p.5-7

1. Refusing to help is a really negative [attitude / quotation / fatal / caption].
2. It is [fatal / wisdom / mandatory / evolutionary] to wear a seatbelt, so please fasten yours.
3. Humans have made towns a convenient [habit / habitat / hobbit / hobby] to live in.
4. Literature can introduce you to the [creature / adapted / cultural / harsh] values of a different time and place.
5. Changes in climate can [transmit / process / reinvent / drive] the need for adaptation to a new environment.
6. This article puts environmental change [back / toward / after / forward] as the reason to wetter winters.
7. Charles Darwin was one of the first people to study the [evolutionary / biological / mechanism / undoubtedly] changes in species.
8. Who [retained / sealed / sew / coined] the term 'the survival of the fittest'? Was it Charles Darwin?
9. I enjoyed reading the article because the writer managed to [perish / ensure / fashion / convey] her view very clearly.
10. We [ensure / subsequent / abbreviate / mandatory] Mister to the two letters Mr.
11. Eagles and penguins are birds; the [former / latter / ladder / later] however, do not fly.
12. Eagles and penguins are birds; the [former / latter / ladder / later] however, do not inhabit the Antarctic.
13. Affordable flats are few and far [between / among / behind / forward] in this area, so I will have to rent somewhere else.
14. Humans [accumulate / illustrate / access / point] knowledge from their personal experience and by learning from other people.
15. Primitive people [tooled / perished / fashioned / crucial] clothes from animal skins and fur.
16. The settlers [adopted / retained / resembled / ensured] the hunting methods of the native people in order to find food.
17. This article looks at the disaster that hit earth and what happened next, including the [subsequent / diverse / mandatory / flourish] extinction of dinosaurs.
18. A(n) [transfer / expedition / unique / region] to the South Pole can be extremely dangerous.
19. The [breakthrough / enabled / inexorable / disease] process of environmental changes is what we must adapt to.
20. Greece has [point / diverse / achieved / deficiency] geographical regions, including islands, mountains and valleys.