

Comma Review – All Five Rules

Check the boxes where commas are needed in the following sentences. There may be no commas needed or multiple commas needed in each sentence. It is a good idea to review your notes and have them open while you work through this exercise.

1. Yesterday we met Elijah and Thomas and they showed us how to fix fluffy sweet pancakes over a campfire.
2. "Geronimo was a cuddly furry puppy and he loved me " claimed Ted.
3. For this class the students should bring their textbooks pencils and computers to class.
4. On one snowy wintry day my unusual charming cousin was born but we always celebrate early.
5. After his long meeting with the boss Bill asked "Did you send the package to Alaska Maine Kansas or France?"
6. During the long stormy night the wind rattled the windows shook the door frame and peeled shingles off of our roof.
7. Marjorie announced that she "liked" Victor but did not "love" him.
8. Honestly I saw a cow dance and sing on top of haystack and then my grandma's prize pig got into rusty old truck and did donuts in the eastern cornfield.
9. Joe Martin said " Zip is the biggest strongest dog on the block yet he is as harmless as a fly."
10. John says pineapple green peppers hot sauce and baloney belong on pizza but I totally disagree.