

Name: _____

Grade: 9

Family Life & Health Education

Communication

Communication is an exchange of information thoughts and ideas. It can be done verbally or nonverbally. Verbal communication: Written and spoken words, sounds, signs etc. are used to convey information. Nonverbal: Body gestures and facial expression are used to convey information. Miscommunication: a failure to get a message across effectively or lack of clear communication.

Instruction: Write VERBAL and NON VERBAL next to the appropriate word if the action is verbal or non-verbal.

Identify the following as verbal or non-verbal communication.

- a. Pouting _____
- b. Crying _____
- c. letter _____
- d. Wheezing _____
- e. sulking _____

